★★ FACULTY

JOAN FEISS is a graduate of Bucks County Community College with a degree in fine arts. She has taught at the Michener Museum, the Painter's Nest, Doylestown Art League, Oreland Art League and the Painter's Palette. In working with her students, Joan's goal is to encourage and guide them to reach their greatest potential and produce their best work while enjoying their class.

EMILY PACENSKI recently received a Bachelor of Art Education from Tyler School of Art and is certified to teach K-12. She has been teaching at Allegheeny Art since 2004.

MARILYN WILLIAMS' artistic tendencies has led her into garden design where she operated her own company for two decades. She now explores watercolor painting and has taught for Doylestown Art League. Marilyn has a degree in Chemistry from the University of Delaware.
